

ORDINANCE NO.: 2001-108

Amending the 1998 Code of Ordinances of the City of Columbia, South Carolina, Chapter 2, Administration, Article III, Officers and Employees, Sec. 2-117, Finance director

BE IT ORDAINED by the Mayor and Council this 19th day of December, 2001, that the 1998 Code of Ordinances of The City of Columbia, South Carolina, Chapter 2, Administration, Article III, Officers and Employees, Sec. 2-117, Finance director is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 2-117. Finance director.

(a) Duties generally. The finance director shall have administrative supervision over the finance department. He shall be responsible to the city manager for all administrative affairs under his jurisdiction, such as financial planning, accounting, purchasing, licensing, property management, collecting, disbursing, and reviewing ordinances and resolutions relating to expenditures, revenues, tax levies and other fiscal problems. He shall perform such additional duties as may be assigned to him by the city manager.

(b) Collection of taxes, assessments, penalties and fees. The finance director shall serve as tax collector and shall enforce the collection of all executions for the payment of delinquent taxes, assessments, penalties and execution fees, and costs for advertising which shall be issued and directed to him under the seal of the city and signed by the finance director. In every case where it shall be necessary to offer for sale any real or personal property levied upon by virtue of an execution, the finance director shall proceed thereon in the same manner as is provided by law for the sale of property under execution for the enforcement of state and county taxes. All sales shall be held in front of the city hall, and property sold for such delinquency shall be subject to lien, if any, of the state and county for taxes.

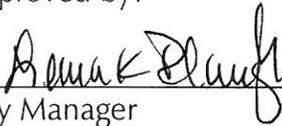

This ordinance is effective as of final reading.
