RE: Cinco De Mayo in Five Points

Dear Mr. Meggs:

As a joint effort with Hispanic Connections, the Five Points Association would like to co-sponsor Cinco De Mayo on Saturday, May 5, 2001, from 7:00 PM until 11:00 PM. The event is planned as an educational, festive, colorful community gathering of different cultures with the early hours between 7:00 PM and 8:30 PM focusing on families and children.

Upon Council's approval, we respectfully request that the area around the fountain be deemed a city park for the purpose of serving beer and wine during the celebration. It is also requested that the Harden Street and Greene Street entrances to Saluda Avenue be closed at 6:00 PM. Traffic would be able to enter Saluda from Blossom Street and make a U-turn to leave the area. The barricades will be removed at no later than midnight.

Please place this on Council's agenda at it's next scheduled meeting. Please call me at 803-748-7373 if you have questions or concerns. Thank you for your help and consideration.

Sincerely,

Debbie Parker
Executive Director
