Registration Period Open for City's Fall Youth Sports Leagues

The City of Columbia Parks & Recreation Department is accepting registrations for several youth sports leagues including baseball, flag football and soccer.

The department is introducing a new sport to the youth sports program — flag football. The flag football program will introduce football concepts in a safe, fun and competitive environment. The program is part of the NFL Flag League program, which is part of the NFL Play 60 health and fitness campaign.

The fee to register is $25 per participant.
